THE CITY.

—Where? How?—
—The first meeting of the first Monday in July.
—An old saying is that "it never rains at night in June."
—Hon. A. J. McLaughlin, of Brandon, was in the city yesterday.
—Mr. Daniel Nicholson, of Terry, was visiting the city yesterday.
—The Capitol building is receiving a much needed coat of paint.
—The usual summer dullness appears to be settling down over Jackson.
—Most of our city schools will close for the summer within the next two weeks.
—Clean up your premises, or you will have a call from the city health authorities.
—The Union Prayer Meeting of West Jackson has been suspended during the hot weather.
—The Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor of Mississippi meets in this city on the 13th and 14th inst.
—During the last month a number of handsome residences have been erected in our city.
—Major J. B. Robertson, of Brownsville, was in the city and favored us with a call on yesterday.
—Harp Co. Co. No. 3 will give an excursion to Vicksburg on the 15th inst. Fare round trip $1.00.
—Mr. E. Bloom has rebuilt the cotton gin and factory which he had in the city to lose last winter by fire.
—Mrs. Morancy, State Librarian, is fortunate in securing an assistant in the person of our young friend, Mr. John H. Boyd.
—Miss Julia Sullivan returned home on Saturday from St. Louis, Va., where she has been for the past year attending school.
—The ladies of the Penitentiary have established telephone communication between the Penitentiary and the Telegraph office.
—Nowhere more plainly than at the Mayor's Court can the effect of the dull season be observed. Business at that quarter is at a standstill.
—Extensive preparations are being made for the Crystal Springs Camp Meeting this summer. Jackson will, as usual, send down a large delegation.
—Young man, you can now begin to hold up your head! Strawberries are fast disappearing, and, of necessity, festivals will have to follow suit.
—John C. Vanden, Esq., late of this city, now occupies the important position of bookkeeper in the National Bank of the Republic, Philadelphia, Pa.
—The aspiring and would-be office-holding Republicans who have been betting on Grant's nomination, look blue. Jackson holds a number of such.
—Five hundred copies of the laws of Mississippi, passed by the last Legislature, were delivered to the Secretary of State by the State Printer last week.
—The pupils of Miss Whiting's school will give a Cantata at the Opera House on Tuesday night next, the occasion being the close of the school for the season.
—The Man of Destiny didn't pan out well at Chicago, and, from what we learn, some of his backers around here have suffered financial losses on account of it.
—Mr. Wm. Shelton, from Knoxville, Tenn., and Mr. Orlando Green, from Princeton, N. J., have returned home during the past week for the summer vacation.
—The Catholic Knights of America, of this city, contemplate having an excursion to Vicksburg at an early day. Committees have been appointed to make necessary arrangements.
—The cuncts tapers are on their rounds. "What was your age last birthday?" is one of the questions they propound, and a correct answer has to be given. Ladies should be in this mind.
—A number of our young people, comprising some of the best amateur dramatic talent of our city, are engaged in rehearsing theatricals, which will be produced at the Opera House at an early day.
—G. Y. Freeman, Esq., of Grenada, well-known and highly esteemed in this city, where he has frequently visited, sailed recently for Europe, intending to be absent the greater part of the summer.
—Every summer the number of pleasure seekers who leave Jackson for cooler and more pleasant cities increases, and indications now are that the present season will show quite a decided increase over last.
—It is, we believe, the purpose of some of our young gentlemen to give a fete or ball complimentary to the young ladies who will graduate at the approaching commencement of the several schools of our city.
—The trustees of Lunatic Asylum have ordered the erection of brick stables, to take the place of the frame building destroyed by fire a few weeks since. The damage by the fire has been estimated at five thousand dollars.
—Several weeks since our talented and witty comrade, Mr. Thad. Potter, of the Republican, delivered a lecture, part gay, and all instructive and pleasing, at the Opera House, to quite a large and appreciative audience. At the time we prepared some notes on the lecture, the thought was, "Things Generally, Through the Ages of Time," intending to use it as a pair of trousers. It was intended to be a pair of trousers, but a rash of other matters prevented. We learn now that Mr. Potter is to be invited to again deliver the lecture, in which invitation we cordially join, hoping that he may find it pleasant and practicable to gratify the wishes of his many friends by complying with their requests.
—The Commercial Travelers Convention met in this city pursuant to call, and formed a Southern Commercial Travelers Association, with Horace Haddley, President; N. Gentry, Vice-President; G. D. Bustamante, Secretary and Treasurer. Committees were appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws and issue a call for a general meeting September 6th. The object is to form a co-operative association to relieve distress in the family of any member, and negotiating a fair rate of freight for their goods. The attendance was good on such short notice. The members expect a large meeting on the sixth of September in this city. The cities represented were: St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Memphis, Cairo, Richmond, Virginia, and Paducah.

—Dr. Geo. K. Harrington of this city, was telegraphed for on Sunday last, to visit Col. J. M. Wesson, who was very sick at his residence at Bogus Chitto, Lincoln county. Dr. H. returned yesterday morning, and we are gratified to say that he reports Col. Wesson better.
—On Thursday evening next, (10th inst.), there will be a garden party at the residence of Col. W. Q. Lowry, the leader of the Young American Base Ball Club. Admission, 10 cents. Music, dancing and other forms of amusement will be the order of the evening. Public invited.
—The annual exhibition by the pupils of Zane's Seminary for young ladies will take place at Robinson's Opera House on Thursday night, 17th. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged in order to meet the expenses of the ladies. Reserved seats can be secured at Ledbetter's drug store.
—The Commencement exercises of the University of Mississippi begin on Friday, 18th. The programme appears in another column. Visitors will pay full fare in going, and will be returned from Oxford at half fare. We hear of quite a number in this vicinity who expect to attend.
—The New Era, a monthly paper, devoted to literature, society and general news, edited by Miss Maud Smith and Mrs. Mary Anderson, is before us. The paper is a credit to and worthy of the accomplished ladies who conduct it. It has our best wishes for abundant and continued success.
—The compress building is being rapidly erected, and when finished it will be both a handsome and substantial one. Nearly all the machinery has arrived, and it will be put in place before long. It is in the rear of the Female College at Clinton, commencing June 15th, ending June 21st.
—It was our pleasure on Sunday night last to hear a sermon delivered by Rev. Mr. Spores, the new pastor of the Baptist church in this city, and we, like all others who have had the good fortune to hear him, pronounced our Baptist friends indeed fortunate in having secured the services of such an able minister.
—Mr. Harry Taylor, the renowned comedian, will soon have the new passenger depot of the Chicago and New Orleans Railroad completed. Mr. George Lemon, the popular West-Jackson merchant, has removed his store house from the grounds of the depot, and will put up a superb brick building in the immediate vicinity.
—On Friday night next Fair Lawn Institute will close one of its most successful and prosperous sessions. Under the able management of Miss Baird, this institution has steadily been increasing in popularity, and stands among the first schools for young ladies in the State. The exercises Friday night will consist of essays by the graduates, vocal and instrumental music, addresses, etc.
—The Grand Lodge Knights of Honor will hold its third annual session in this city, commencing on Tuesday next, 15th. The order has increased very largely during the past year, and it is expected that there will be about one hundred delegates in attendance. All the railroads give reduced rates, the details of which have been communicated to the Lodges by Grand Reporters.
—At the last regular meeting of Pearl Hook and Lumber, No. 1, the following officers were elected to serve during the present term: Foreman, E. H. Rober, 1st Assistant, H. G. Hillman; 2d Assistant, Wm. Van Hook; Treasurer, Alex. Vanden, Secretary, W. T. Chiles; Tilerman, W. B. Ross; Assessor, Thos. Henry. The "Hooks" contemplate building a new and handsome truck house at an early date.
—The tramp nuisance ought to disappear entirely from this section of the State. The State, willing to be responsible for the well-to-do man, and the tramps should be sent forward to the Raymond railroad work with all dispatch. Those who are unable to work should have no home tickets. The tramp nuisance is likely to be abated.
—Hinds County Gazette.
—We commend this notice to the readers who congregate on the shady side of Pearl and State streets, and around the railroad depot.
—On Sunday last the feast of Corpus Christi was celebrated by our Catholic friends. A train from Canton in the morning brought down a large number of the church at Canton, who participated in the ceremonies of the occasion. The procession, composed of one formation, one from the convent, and after a short march, returned to the starting point and disbanded, when devotional exercises were held. The exercises were impressive, the singing and music being particularly fine.
—Pearl river navigation for the season is about at an end. All the indications point to such being the case. The river has fallen, the Clifton is out of repair, and trade is not as brisk as it might be. So far as the waters of the river are concerned, it will rest in quiet, calm repose, unbroken save by the sighs and blessings of the patient, long-suffering and disappointed fisherman, or by the plume of the small boy taking a swim. "How are the mighty fallen," and to what base uses may great things be brought!"
—The Capital City, Mad of Jackson, made such a good impression upon the authorities of the State University, at Oxford, last June, that they have been ordered to send forward to furnish the music on the occasion of the approaching commencement. The Band is indeed a fine one, and we guarantee satisfaction. A new selection of music has been recently ordered, and the band is practicing diligently. As now organized by the following gentlemen compose the band: Messrs. Isadore Schwartz, Jo. Rietti, J. F. Hunter, Don Schwartz, D. P. Ford, George Hunter, Jacques Braun, W. T. Holland and E. T. Evans.
—Several weeks since our talented and witty comrade, Mr. Thad. Potter, of the Republican, delivered a lecture, part gay, and all instructive and pleasing, at the Opera House, to quite a large and appreciative audience. —On Sunday last the feast of Corpus Christi was celebrated by our Catholic friends. A train from Canton in the morning brought down a large number of the church at Canton, who participated in the ceremonies of the occasion. The procession, composed of one formation, one from the convent, and after a short march, returned to the starting point and disbanded, when devotional exercises were held. The exercises were impressive, the singing and music being particularly fine.
—Pearl river navigation for the season is about at an end. All the indications point to such being the case. The river has fallen, the Clifton is out of repair, and trade is not as brisk as it might be. So far as the waters of the river are concerned, it will rest in quiet, calm repose, unbroken save by the sighs and blessings of the patient, long-suffering and disappointed fisherman, or by the plume of the small boy taking a swim. "How are the mighty fallen," and to what base uses may great things be brought!"

It was intended to be a pair of trousers, but a rash of other matters prevented. We learn now that Mr. Potter is to be invited to again deliver the lecture, in which invitation we cordially join, hoping that he may find it pleasant and practicable to gratify the wishes of his many friends by complying with their requests.
